

KICK N' UP KOUNTRY – A Music and Comedy Tribute to the Ozark Mountain Jubilee

The whole family can enjoy the good, clean fun that this show provides and brings to the stage. If you close your eyes, you may believe that you are back in time and sitting in the front row for the Ozark Mountain Jubilee TV Variety Show.

In a theater that seats a maximum of 319 people, this show is an intimate experience with every seat a great seat. The energetic showmanship of the Kick N' Up Kountry cast pulls the crowd to their feet to clap, dance, and stomp along with their favorite country music.

You'll get a taste of it through harmony singing, side-splitting comedy, and of course, a whole lot of Ozark country music that will give you that 'feel good' feeling again.

Kick N' Up Kountry, features the very best in classic country style musicians, dancers and singers from the world of Square Dancers, Bluegrass Banjo and Fiddle Players to Country Comedians. You may even experience a surprise guest who's looking around the barnyard for his hound dog. The show is also an interactive experience, so don't be surprised if Hillbilly Bob, Otis or Minnie Pearl pulls you up onstage to participate in some humorous country style variety entertainment.

Also mixed into the show you'll hear great singing voice impressions of legendary country artists like, Ray Price, George Jones, Charlie Pride, Merle Haggard, Conway Twitty, Kenny Rogers and more.

AND if that's not enough, with floor-pounding square dance routines, hilarious costumes, and even more ridiculous stage props this very entertaining show is sure to put a smile on your face and have you up laughing and foot-stomping right along with cast thought out the show.

So take a trip back to the Ozarks for an afternoon of classic country culture, memories and plenty of enjoyment.
