

A COUNTRY CHRISTMAS WITH JOHNNY AND JUNE CARTER CASH & FRIENDS

The charm and spirit of the Christmas season will fill your heart when your entertainment choice includes a musical Christmas tribute to Johnny Cash and his wife June Carter Cash along with some of their legendary country friends.

This holiday program features engaging performances from Phillip Bauer, the country's leading Johnny Cash tribute performer combined with voice impressionist, Bethany Owen performing as June Carter Cash who has become a hit headlining her one-woman show in Las Vegas.

When Phillip (Johnny Cash) and Bethany (June Carter Cash) and other holiday themed acts take to the stage at the Huntington Beach Central Park Library Theater this holiday season, your whole family can enjoy a magical and spirited country Christmas experience that is filled with soul touching renditions of some of your favorite holiday tunes as well as some of your favorite tradition hit songs through the talents of these great tribute performers.

The acts will be beautifully costumed in their holiday finest, and the stage will be decorated in an old west Virginia City Christmas style complete with Christmas trees, lights and even snow to give it a festive holiday spirit.

So come join in on the joy and fun of the holiday season and keep the Christmas spirit shining bright through these amazing impersonations in this star-studded holiday show as Johnny Cash, June Carter Cash and Friends make you laugh, sing-along and bring back some great holiday memories through festive performances of the magic of Christmas.
